April 2010 brings us to four years and eight months of operation for our "Old Dawgs & Pups" program. Profiles and Photographs of members of Old Dawgs & Pups

J. D. Jones and Sentry Dog Thor (76M5) during their tour at Udorn Royal Thai Air Base, Thailand in 1969-1970. On the right, Grandpa J. D. is enjoying his new position as grandfather as he spends some quality time with his new grandson Jax and of course his pal Abbey oversees the new arrival. J.D. hails from Wichita, Kansas and has supported 7 deployed Military Working Dog teams. Looks like you are doing pretty well at your new job J.D.

Davis-Monthan AFB Handlers return home from Iraq & Afghanistan

SrATolbert Jefferies & Rex (Iraq) and SSgt Steven Gonzalez & Bruno (Afghanistan) both returned to Davis-Monthan AFB, Arizona, on March 23rd. Through the generosity of their home kennel, Bill Cummings was able to meet both teams at the airport and to welcome them home in person – This is something that is very special and it was just an honor to be involved with these K-9 teams. Welcome home guys!

455th ESFS – Bagram, Afghanistan gearing back up!

We just received this photograph of the personnel assigned to Bagram. Ray Allen had just made a very nice donation of equipment to the kennel. They are pictured here with the Ray Allen banner. One of the handlers made a connection with the Kiowa Helicopter guys and they let them take this picture in front of their Kiowa.

The “Amazing Race” at Bagram Air Base, Afghanistan

SSgt Gwin & Rex, TSgt Tracey Booth and the decoy – the last words were heard were “Rex is going to kill you”! “Last week we were asked to assist in the wing’s Amazing Race event. One of the events was to put on the bite suit and run a relay race or the smallest person had to take a hit from a dog. Of course everyone wanted to take a hit from the dog...not too smart. Well, Rex, slammed just about everyone he got to go after...including a Captain that he gave a nice bruise on the arm and broke her nail half way back...and to top it off...he dislocated an Army PFC’s shoulder. For a 9-year-old Mal...he hits like a train. It was awesome. Take care...and thanks for taking care of my guys” – TSgt Tracey Booth

Then click on the box that says “Bagram Airfield Video”. The coordinator of the event had this to say about the MWD teams contributions. “The Camp Kujo/Mad Dog station was a highlight of many of the teams and we couldn’t have done it without you!” These two photographs are of the Captain’s bruise (tricep) and the PFC’s dislocated shoulder. Well you can’t see the dislocated shoulder but you can see the brace sticking out of his shirt.

Here are a few other candid shots of Rex opening up a can of “Whoop Ass” on the Amazing Race participants. From what we understand there was a whole lot of “Get him – Hold him Rex”!

Oh, almost forgot! “Have you met SSgt Mike Gwin and Rex”? Here are a few people that have and we think it will be a “lasting impression”. Can you say “Kicking butt and taking names”? Those of you keeping score – its Rex & the Gang 5 – Bagram Air Base Personnel 0.

At this point in time – the decoy sure wishes he was a plumber instead of a decoy!
Way to go guys – they will remember this afternoon for a long, long time

More Amazing Race at Bagram

SSgt Jonathan Hartwell and Dagi participated in the demonstration during the “Amazing Race”. According to TSgt Booth “That dog is so damn fast it’s ridiculous and loves patrol work. He got the chance to take a couple of people down.....I think him and Rex (SSgt Michael Gwin’s dog) were having their own competition of who could house the most decoys”! Just look at the position of the decoy – he knows when the cause for paws have triumphed! Thanks TSgt Booth and members of the 455th ESFS K-9 section for sharing these great photographs with us!

Back to Work at Bagram Air Base

Left: SSgt Leolofi Leolofi & MWD Jack and SSgt Ryan Craig & MWD Endy prepare to mount up for the evening patrol.

Right: SSgt Ryan Craig and MWD Endy inside the MRAP – what a vehicle and what a team!

332nd ESFS – Joint Base Balad, Iraq - Election Postings

FOB Salerno – Afghanistan

SSgt Jerod Schley and MWD Baddy have moved to Bagram Air Base to join 415th Military Police Detachment. We have shipped doggles and portable water bowls to SSgt Schley and his troops. Thanks again MSgt Hugo Nunez for your assistance in supporting this team.

447th ESFS – Sather Air Base, Iraq

SSgt Gabriel Bravo & MWD Mayo have just been deployed to Sather Air Base, Iraq. Many of you met SSgt Bravo at the VSPA reunion in Phoenix last year at the 56th SFS, Luke AFB. Gabe met us at the door and conducted the kennel tour and the fantastic demonstration. This is our first venture at Sather and we are really proud to have this dog team supported by Phil Carroll, who also served at the 56th – in Thailand. The photo on the right shows the true balance and training that our MWDs have today – NOT – Gabo and Bravo are just “having a ball”!

Also deployed to Sather are SSgt Charles Messer & MWD Elza from Maxwell AFB, Alabama. That team is being supported by Doug McCoy (47th IPSD) and Janet Wise (FDoK). How about that for a team supporting a team? Welcome aboard Gabe & Mayo and Charles and Elza.

Military Working Dogs run final course

by Staff Sgt. Jason Colbert
56th Fighter Wing Public Affairs Office

3/31/2010 - LUKE AIR FORCE BASE, Ariz. (AFNS) -- Three military working dogs here are due to be medically retired April 6, and took a final run at the kennel obstacle course March 25. The dogs and their partners are assigned to the 56th Security Forces.

Photographed above are MWD Roc adopted by SSgt Kyle Alltop, MWD Kisma adopted by SSgt Phillip Kittelson, and MWD Jampy adopted by SSgt John Pillarella.

Military Working Dogs Retiring at Luke AFB!

On April 7, 2010 several members of our organization attended the retirement ceremony for three Military Working Dogs at the 56th SFS, Luke Air Base, Arizona. SSgt John Pillarella has adopted MWD Jampy (C115), SSgt Phillip Kittelson has adopted MWD Kisma (B266) and SSgt Kyle Alltop has adopted MWD Roc (D246). Bill Cummings joined TSgt Angel Landrau (355th SFS – Davis-Monthan AFB) and the members of the 56th SFS to celebrate the retirement of these three Military Working Dogs at Luke AFB, Arizona.

To conclude the ceremony, the three MWDs travelled outside the theater for their “official last bite”. Believe me when I say that they sure didn’t look like retired MWDs – the big end still bites! Left to Right: SSgt Phillip Kittelson & Kisma, SSgt John Pillarella & Jampy, and SSgt Kyle Alltop and Roc. It was a great day – it sure made you proud to have served as a dog handler.

More from the Military Working Dogs Retirement at Luke AFB!

Bill Cummings is photographed with the shadow boxes, proclamations, and “retirement bones” for the MWD teams – “It was the most impressive military ceremony that I have ever attended. Squadron Commander, Major Michael Borders made the official presentations and he did a great job” according to Bill. SSgt Justin Kitts was the Master of Ceremonies for the event and SSgt Charles Wilder assisted. It should be noted that Phillip Kittelson, John Pillarella, Justin Kitts, and Charles Wilder have all been supported by Old Dawgs & Pups. Many of you should also remember Kyle Alltop from our VSPA reunion last year – he was the one that tried to “Keep Up” – NOT!
